Exhibition Services

1. Expo Publications

1.1 Principles of Distribution

The Organizers will send the Expo Publications free of charge to each exhibitor. The publications will be sent to each booth after the opening of the Expo.

1.2 Information Registration

The Organizers will publish the contact information of the exhibitors on the Expo Publications free of charge so as to demonstrate the features of their products in a better way. Meanwhile, the Organizers will also collect the information from the exhibitors to ensure the correctness of these publications. Please visit the China International Import Expo Online Service System in time and fill in and check the relevant contents prior to the prescribed deadline.

2. Mobile Payment

For further improving the convenience of consumption, exhibitors can use "Tour Card" through the service of Bank of Shanghai or download "WeChat" and "Alipay" APP to bind the overseas bank card, and then use mobile payment in most merchants in China, including catering, transportation, hotels, and shopping malls. Currently, Visa, Mastercard, Diners Club, Discover and other mainstream overseas bank cards can be supported. Please scan the code to watch the video guide for specific operation methods.

6. On-site Information Supporting Service

All areas of the exhibition hall are covered with 4G and 5G signals, and the traffic capacity can currently handle about 250,000 calls per day. The exhibition hall has built a high-performance switching network with full coverage of integrated cabling, offering services including ordinary broadband, dedicated high-speed broadband, wired fixed-line calling, etc. Free Wi-Fi “NECC-FREE” is also provided which can be accessed via the CIIE's mobile terminal Wi-Fi function (connection rate ranges from 1 Mbps to 5 Mbps depending on the total number of users. The technical limitations of the wireless network may affect user experience due to various objective restrictions. In the case of a large number of Internet users and external signal interference, there may be slow Internet access or connection difficulties in some areas.) Free Wi-Fi will limit large bandwidth Internet applications, such as P2P downloads, Internet speed tests, HD video and live streaming. Technically, Wi-Fi signals are susceptible to interference, which may affect user experience in actual use due to various objective reasons. For example, in the case of a large number of Internet users and external signal interference, there may be slow Internet access or connection difficulties in some areas. If there is a demand for higher quality Wi-Fi access, additional customized Wi-Fi access services with high density and high bandwidth can be provided.
