Forging Stable, Prosperous and Open Global Financial Partnerships

Date: November 6th, 2026

Venue: Hall A2, Pavilion 4.2

Hosted by: Industrial and Commercial Bank of China

Organized by: Belt and Road Bankers Roundtable (BRBR)

Introduction:

The global economic and financial landscape is complex and fluid, with rising uncertainties, making multilateral financial cooperation more valuable than ever. Centered on the theme "Forging Stable, Prosperous and Open Global Financial Partnerships", this forum leverages the Hongqiao platform of the CIIE to bring together government authorities and financial institutions for dialogue and exchanges on practical cross-border financial cooperation. The event seeks to strengthen links among global financial partners, safeguard cross-border financial stability, empower global trade and investment through financial openness and cooperation, and contribute to a more resilient and inclusive global financial ecosystem.
