Introduction:

The Pudong Parallel Session of the eighth Hongqiao International Economic Forum is co-hosted by Shanghai Municipal People’s Government and the Ministry of Commerce, and organized by Pudong New Area People’s Government. This year’s session, themed “Pudong and the World: Forging a Path to Openness, Shaping a New Industrial Landscape,” focuses on Pudong’s efforts to advance high-standard institutional opening-up. The session gathers domestic and international guests from politics, business, and academia, including representatives from international organizations, Nobel laureates, and senior executives from multinational corporations. Together, they will discuss Pudong’s role and development path in global economic governance. The session also features a promotion event highlighting Pudong’s latest achievements and practices in promoting high-level opening-up as the pioneer area for socialist modernization.
