◆ Highlights

Lancôme Clarifique Refining Enzymatic Dual Essence

Enriched with rare beech bud extract, this unique dual essence activates the enzymatic reaction, improves skin's natural mechanism of renewal and ensures a refined and smooth skin texture as well as bright skin tone with a precise water-oil ratio of 97:3. The inserted whisk, protected by the exclusive patent, can generate dynamic micro-bubbles of both essences. Two essences blend instantly after gentle shaking to brighten and moisturize the skin.

YSL Beauty

PURE SHOTS Collection--Night Reboot Serum

The serum contains Moonlight Cactus flower extract from Morocco. The most core nutrients of blooming flowers have been captured through a natural and strict high-concentration extraction process. Combined with low-concentration Glycolic Acid, the serum both smooths and refines the feel of skin, and clarifies dull skin for a healthy blemish-free complexion.
Kiehl's Vital Skin--Strengthening Super Serum

Formulated with 11kDa (Kilodalton) hyaluronic acid PrimalHyal™ Ultrafiller, the most ground-breaking ingredient of L’ORÉAL, and with three kinds of herbal adaptogens, this serum penetrates skin’s surface layers, helps fortify skin barrier function and resists the negative effects of various stressors on the skin.

Shiseido Eudermine Revitalizing Essence

Eudermine is a masterpiece of Shiseido, which was launched in 1897 for Shiseido's strategy of officially entering the cosmetics industry. The name, Eudermine is a combination of the Greek words of Eu (beauty) and Derma (skin). It is affectionately nicknamed “Shiseido's Red Water” because of the lotion's vivid color reminiscent of red wine. Since its marketing, Eudermine has been popular among customers for more than 100 years. As a perennial best-seller, Eudermine has further upgraded its formula and packaging, thus ascending to a highly functional toner that "can kill the dryness and save the moisture of the skin to achieve the skin regeneration".
