Introduction to Exhibition Area

The Trade in Services Exhibition Area covers finance, logistics, consulting, property management, supply chain management, retail and cultural tourism.

With a planned exhibition area of 30,000 square meters, the Trade in Services Exhibition Area of the Third China International Import Expo (CIIE) will highlight the theme of "Innovation Adding Value" and the innovations introduced by frontier and cutting-edge technology in the service industry. Each of the major modules and exhibitors in the exhibition area has distinctive features of its own. The financial service module will for the first time introduce nonbank financial institutions, including subsegment exhibitors involved in supply chain finance, financial investment, exchange, credit rating, and blockchain fintech; as usual, leading banking and financial institutions will continue to participate. The traditionally competitive logistics module will, on the themes of "Belt and Road & China Railway Express" and "digital logistics," showcase the international transport emergency solutions and digital innovation schemes of leading sea transportation, air transportation, and freight forwarding companies. Professional counseling, legal, testing and supply chain management agencies will provide one-stop solutions such as international trade support, international arbitration and multinational standard certification, explore the infinite possibilities for futuristic office work, digital transformation and intelligent enterprise management, and help enterprises seize the development opportunities that come with the times.

Instant (Online Quotation and Booking Services)

Clients can log in Instant via the official website of Hamburg Süd to get quotes and confirm booking cargo space. The price is unaffected by other factors or time, and the shipping space will be instantly locked after an order is made.

The easy new way of booking cargo online with Hamburg Süd Hamburg Süd is now offering you a simple, efficient and transparent digital tool - Instant, illustrating the trend of the future cargo booking.

Book with us online via Hamburg Süd website with a few clicks to benefit:

- Speed: say goodbye to waiting for feedback on quote requests. With Instant you get a reliable rate - online and instantly.
- Price: instead of getting rates subject to changes, Instant offers you transparent and fixed prices upfront. The earlier you book, the better the deal.
- Certainty: Instant guarantees your loading space on vessel from the moment you place the booking.

Below these points, there are two columns of benefits. The left column lists: fast, reliable, easy, transparent, direct, and online. The right column states: 'Instant is now live on Asia to Oceania and will gradually expand to all trades - with just a few clicks, it brings additional efficiency to your cargo booking. And what's more! it enhances the certainty of your transportation chain.'
